

Hand-painted napkins, placemats, coasters & glasses

Creating
CHEER

NAPKINS

What you'll need

- One napkin per setting
- Pébéo Setaskrib fabric markers
  - red, green
- Iron

Instructions

1. Wash and dry napkins before painting to remove sizing.
2. Using the green Pébéo Setaskrib fabric marker draw outline of holly and shade in as desired.
3. Air dry for 30 minutes then fix colours by pressing on the reverse side of the fabric for 2-3 minutes with an iron on "cotton" setting.

Tip: Ensure the cap is on tightly then store your pens flat, if stored upright they will dry out.

DECEMBER 25TH PLACEMATS & COASTERS

What you'll need

- Kaisercraft round wooden placemats
  - one per setting
- Kaisercraft round wooden coasters
  - one per setting
- Kaisercraft December 25th paper pack
- Double-sided tape or PVA glue & paint brush
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Clear contact (optional)

Instructions

1. Place both placemat and coaster face down on the reverse side of one sheet of paper, trace around the edge and cut out carefully.
2. Attach to the shape using double-sided tape or PVA glue.
3. Optional – cover with clear contact so they can be wiped over if soiled or wet.

HAND-PAINTED GLASSES

What you'll need

- Wine or champagne glasses
  - one per setting
- Pébéo Vitrea 160 transparent outliner
  - gold
- Pébéo Vitrea 160 frosted glass paint
  - aniseed & grenadine
- Paint brushes

Instructions

1. Thoroughly wash and dry glasses before painting.
2. Using the gold Pébéo Vitrea 160 outliner draw outline of holly and berries or your own design onto the outside of glass, allow to dry.
3. Using Pébéo Vitrea 160 frosted glass paints, paint the holly leaves aniseed and the berries grenadine. Allow to dry for 24 hours then bake painted glasses in an oven as per manufacturer's instructions.
